

Scottish Sports Futures is an award winning charity, based in the East End of Glasgow while delivering impacts for young people across Scotland. Founded by Ian Reid OBE in 2000, SSF successfully harnesses “the power of sport” to change the lives of some of Scotland’s most vulnerable young communities targeting interventions in designated deprived areas of Scotland. Our person centered, needs led delivery programmes provide a unique pathway for young people to achieve positive outcomes and fulfill their potential.

Key statistics

Leadership and Governance

Our CEO Pam Hunter is CEO of Scottish Sports Futures. Pam is a member of IOD, a fellow of RSA and an Open University graduate with an MBA. Her career, initially in the private sector, has moved into the voluntary sector in the last ten years, working in senior leadership roles in areas of Learning Disability, Mental Health and now Sports and Young People. She has been living in Northern Ireland for the last 14 years and has recently returned to her home of Scotland. She is a keen sports fan and player, including a season ticket holder for the Glasgow Warriors.
pam@ssf.org.uk

Our Chair: Maureen McGonigle is the founder of Scottish Women in Sport and has many years’ experience working in a sports environment. She is an excellent communicator, broadcaster and prolific networker on a variety of levels. Maureen has over 25 years experience in influencing key decision makers, advising on the development of policy, planning social media content and digital marketing. Maureen McGonigle is a fellow of the School for Social Entrepreneurs.
scottishwomeninsport@gmail.com

Trustee: David Watt is Executive Director at Institute of Directors, Scotland. David’s current role involves leading one of Scotland’s top business organisations and delivering its services and benefits in support of members and their interests. It involves driving the organisation forward and improving performance whilst acting as the key spokesperson with the media, politicians and other key figures in public and commercial life in Scotland. David also sits on several boards including: British Gymnastics and Fife Sport & Leisure Trust.
dcwatt@organisingleisure.com

Partner Testimonials

“SSF work with and alongside governing bodies to support improved outcomes for young people, building capacity, sharing learning and establishing referral pathways. SSF provide both direct delivery and training to maximise positive destinations for young people across Scotland and are a valuable partner.”

Stewart Harris,
CEO sportscotland

“I have seen how projects, like SSF’s Active East, are delivering lasting and beneficial change to young people. They do this not only by providing young people with opportunities to improve their physical and mental wellbeing, but also helping them to learn new skills, meet new people, and increase their confidence and self-esteem. In short, it’s about improving life chances. At the same time, you are also making communities stronger by using sport to bond.”

Jamie Hepburn, Minister for Sport, Health Improvement and Mental Health

“SSF’s work with Clyde Gateway on the delivery of Jump2it is one of our most successful and popular partnerships which, from our perspective, is helping to ensure our young people have the best chances in life, now and in the future.”

Ian Manson,
Chief Executive.

Young Person Testimonials

“Definitely changed my attitude to life, the way I act and speak. I’m not like a typical teenager that goes out and gets steaming and doing nothing with my life; I’m trying to make a living for myself.”

Modern Apprentice

“SSF has changed my life through volunteering. It’s given me purpose and drive.”

Active Champion

“I have done sessions by myself which has increased my confidence to talk in front of larger groups. I can now talk in front of the class during presentations and answers questions this has had a big impact on my education”

Active Champion

Deliverables:

What could be delivered through Community Benefits funding within Bids:

Cost	What could be delivered for 1 year
£1k	4 Basketball hoops and 90 balls to enable us to run tournaments encouraging education, leadership, physical activity
£2.5k	10 families receive 10-week healthy living education programme meeting twice a week for 2 hours each session or Tournament staff costs and final with over 100 young people playing basketball and receiving educational timeouts
£5k	Residential programme for 50 young people to learn about life skills like goal setting, resilience, stress management, the residential will run from Friday 4pm to Sunday 4pm consisting of 30 hours learning and taking place in venues like Kilgraston School, Perth
£10k	Deliver essential training to 33 youth workers and sports coaches in your community who in turn have a positive impact on the lives of more than 25,000 young people. Training will take the form of a residential consisting of 30 hours learning on essential youth work skills and how to work with young people.
£30k	12 primary schools education interventions working with over 1,000 young people providing training on alcohol and drug misuse, resilience, dangers of smoking, 6 sessions of coaching, tournaments with other schools, prizes, bus transport and engagement with professional Basketball players or Annual diversionary programme for one Local Authority area engaging with 30 disadvantaged young people, distracting them from anti-social behaviours working for 2 hours every Friday evening throughout the year

Cost	What could be delivered for 3 years
£1k per annum	Educational materials to teach young people on alcohol/drug misuse, smoking, cyberbullying, knife crime – all subjects material created over 3 years to provide up-to-date relevant material for issues relating to the communities
£2.5k per annum	30 families receive 10-week healthy living education programme, 10 families each year for 3 years meeting twice a week for 2 hours each session
£5k per annum	Residential programme for 50 young people to learn about life skills each year for 3 years. Skills like goal setting, resilience, stress management, the residential will run from Friday 4pm to Sunday 4pm consisting of 30 hours learning and taking place in venues like Kilgraston School, Perth
£10k per annum	Deliver essential training to 100 youth workers and sports coaches over 3 years in your community who in turn have a positive impact on the lives of more than 25,000 young people. Training will take the form of a residential consisting of 30 hours learning on essential youth work skills and how to work with young people.
£30k per annum	35 primary schools education intervention working with 3,000 young people providing training on alcohol and drug misuse, resilience, dangers of smoking, 6 sessions of coaching, tournaments with other schools, prizes, bus transport and engagement with professional Basketball players or 1 Annual Diversionary programme for one Local Authority area embedded over the 3 years, or 3 separate area interventions each year working for 2 hours every Friday evening throughout the year

We can design programmes to suit your budget and desired outcomes.